Capital Region USA wins Best Family Travel Destination

National Tourism, the leading travel trade magazine in China with a readership of around 50,000 that includes travel professionals, business leaders, and entrepreneurs, announced that Capital Region USA (CRUSA) has won the award for “Best Kids-Friendly Travel Destination” at the 2019 National Tourism Fashion Awards, an influential award in the China travel industry. The winners are selected based on travel professionals’ and experts’ evaluations and media research data, which includes travel agencies, airlines, cruises, tourism bureaus, and attractions. More than 500 representatives from the travel industry attended the award ceremony.
